

Jeff and Vicky Hostetler

Our History

In 1991, Jeff Hostetler became the winning quarterback for the Giants in Super Bowl XXV, and he and Vicky began funding the Hoss Foundation as an arena to bless others. In the last 20 years, the Hostetler's have seen the Hoss Foundation grow from a small family affair to a non-profit organization that embraces hundreds of members in the local community.

Donations

P.O Box 327

Dellslow, WV 26531

*Checks are made out to Hoss Foundation

Contact Us

FRC Phone: 304-598-4660

www.wvumedicine.org

HF Phone: 304-554-2015

www.hossfoundation.com

www.walkthetalkwithhoss.com

The Hoss Foundation is a 501 [c] non-profit organization established to help meet the needs of children and/or families facing hardships due to traumatic injury, illness, or financial crisis.

HOSS
FOUNDATION

Hostetler Family
Resource Center
WVU Medicine
Children's

About Us

The Hostetler Family Resource Center (FRC) is located within WVU Medicine Children's which is on the 6th floor of Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown. Its mission is to ensure families are armed with the needed resources while receiving care and services so that their sole focus can be on their child.

Who can use our services

Parents, grandparents, guardians, and spouse (significant other) of the patients of WVU Medicine Children's Hospital.

Our Services

- Tailgate parties
- WVU Football Team Visits
- Weekly pizza parties and Chick-Fil-A meals
- Computer use and video games
- Make families aware of discounts available
- Family Orientation
- Redirect/arrange resources
- Tie families to support groups and services
- Notary services
- Laundry services

"We're here to do everything we can to make a family's time at the hospital a little easier."

Services Continued

- Experience Morgantown: learn about restaurants, hotels and fun things to do in the Mountaineer City
- Assist with the creation of My Chart Accounts for families
- Provide education and sales of safety products such as car seats and bike helmets
- Evaluate need and connect families with appropriate staff (social workers, chaplains, child life, etc.)
- Provide information and tickets regarding area attractions